Featured Product Decorative CBUs

The Reserve at Crossing Creek
Bradenton, FL

A Cluster Box Unit (CBU) is a group of mailboxes stacked on top of each other. This centralized mail system is ideal for apartment complexes and multifamily communities.

The Reserve at Crossing Creek is a new home development located just minutes from premier downtown Bradenton and Sarasota. The community offers one- and two-story homes with four unique floor plans ranging from 1,900- to nearly 3,250-square-feet.

Enclave at Aloma, located in Winter Park, is a new single-family home community built by Ryland Homes. The homes in Enclave at Aloma range from three to four bedrooms and are all designed to be incredibly energy-efficient homes.

Featured Project

Decorative Street Signs
for Torey Pines HOA

Torey Pines, located in Windermere, Florida, is regarded as one of Orlando's premiere addresses. The 178 single-family home community encompasses over 500 acres of land and is conveniently located within walking distance of nearby schools and area attractions including Disney World and the new Mall at Millenia. The community is well known for its beautiful landscape and wooded areas, hence the name Torey Pines.

This past month, Creative Mailbox & Sign Designs had the opportunity of working with the Torey Pines Homeowner's Association to replace the community's decorative street signage. All of the street sign components including the fluted pole, base and finial are custom-made.
